

Heritage Theater

City of Campbell

Heritage Theater

City of Campbell

- Listed in the National Register as a Contributor to a district
- The Heritage Theater, built in 1938, was designed by William H. Weeks, noted designer of numerous buildings in central and northern California. The building's decorative tile was made by Albert Solon. When rehabilitated, this Spanish Colonial Revival building which has stood unused for two decades, will be utilised by local schools and performing groups.

Heritage Theater

City of Campbell

Project Scope:

- Restore building exterior, including stucco walls, ornamental terra cotta urns, ceramic tile lintels, bas-relief wall plaques, wood doors and windows, clay quarry pavers and roofing tiles, and ornamental light fixtures.
- Interior rehabilitation including ornamental painted plaster and wood ceiling and light fixtures such as chandeliers, domes, and schoolhouse pendants.

Grant Amount: $250,000